

Beef Promotions Contest

As a County Beef Queen you will have the opportunity to promote the Beef Industry and enlighten the public about the positive aspects of our industry by doing promotional activities. This contest allows you to keep track of your activities and gives you an incentive to actively promote the Beef Industry

This contest officially began the day you were crowned as Queen and will end at The Ohio Cattlemen's Meeting and Awards Banquet. Each participant is required to fill out the Beef Promotions Activity Report Forms and keep them in a 3-ring binder. These binders will be submitted to Angela Dunson, OCW Queen Contest Coordinator at the banquet and the queen with the most promotional activities will win the contest.

