

Additional Contests

Overview

We hope these additional contests will excite and assist you in finding ways to get involved promoting the beef industry. This page is to review the additional contests available, that will guide and prepare you for the Ohio Beef Queen Contest. Please review each 'additional contest's' rules and description individually at, www.ohiocattlewomen.com, on the youth activities page.

Beef Promotions Activity

Record the different things your doing while serving as your county's beef queen. Be sure to fill out the 'beef promotions activity form' for each promotion you complete. You can find two styles of forms online at www.ohiocattlewomen.com. One form can be typed in and the other can be printed out and hand written, whichever you prefer.

Scrapbooking Contest

Be sure to take photos at events to record your reign as queen. For five additional bonus points when interviewing for Ohio Beef Queen, complete and submit a scrapbook the day of the interviews. It's as easy as that!

OCW Membership Contest

Know someone that isn't an Ohio Cattlewomen's Association member? Get them to join and if you have the most OCW membership sales you'll win the contest!

OCW Quilt Raffle Tickets

Each year the OCW purchases a quilt and sells raffle tickets. All proceeds go to purchase beef which is then donated to a particular district. This is an activity that goes towards a great cause, so be sure to sell lots of tickets!
