

Application

Applications Due: October 23, 2015

The Ohio Beef Ambassador Program (OBAP) provides an opportunity for youth to educate consumers and students about beef nutrition, food safety, and stewardship practices of the beef industry. The OBAP team will promote the beef industry as they develop skills of leadership, communication and self-confidence. The OBAP program seeks to educate team members about the beef industry so that they may be better prepared to tell their own story regarding agriculture.

Requirements for competition:

- To compete in the Ohio Beef Ambassador Program annual contest, participants must be 18-23 years of age as of January 1, 2016.
- Participants or their families do not need to be actively involved in the beef industry, or belong to the Ohio Cattlemen's or Cattlewomen's Association.
- Individuals may compete for a place on the ambassador team as long as they are eligible or until they have been named the winner and attended the National Beef Ambassador contest.
- Contestants may not enter any competition to serve as an ambassador for a competitive commodity group while serving as an Ohio Beef Ambassador.
